

4. Other

Application of Simplified Accounting Treatment and Special Accounting Treatment in Preparing Quarterly Consolidated Financial Statements

[Special Accounting Treatment in Preparing Quarterly Consolidated Financial Statements]

Income taxes are calculated based on the estimated tax rate, taking into account tax effects, for the consolidated fiscal year relating to the consolidated six-month period under review.