

Translation of report filed with the Tokyo Stock Exchange on February 22, 2006

Mitsubishi Corporation to Dissolve and Liquidate a Subsidiary

Mitsubishi Corporation has decided to dissolve and liquidate its subsidiary, as detailed below.

1. Company Overview

Name:	MC Fluoropolymers Co., Ltd.
Address:	6-3, Marunouchi 2-chome, Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo
President:	Nobuhiko Otomo
Business:	Marketing of fluoropolymers products
Established:	May 2002
Capital:	10 million yen
Shareholder:	Mitsubishi Corporation (100%)
Fiscal year-end:	March

2. Reason for Dissolution and Liquidation

Fluoropolymers products trading business of MC Fluoropolymers will be transferred and concentrated to Yamasan Shoji Co., Ltd. (The name will be changed to MC Yamasan Polymers Co., Ltd. from April 1, 2006). Consequently, the decision was made to dissolve this subsidiary.

3. Schedule

Resolution of dissolution: March 2006 (planned)

Completion of liquidation: September 30, 2006 (planned)

4. Impact on MC Operating Results

The liquidation of the aforementioned subsidiary will have only a negligible effect on Mitsubishi Corporation's non-consolidated and consolidated (U.S. GAAP) operating results.

###