MITSUBISHI INTERNATIONAL CORPORATION DONATES TO HURRICANE RELIEF EFFORT

NEW YORK (September 2, 2005) – Mitsubishi International Corporation (MIC) today announced that together with its parent company Mitsubishi Corporation (MC) it will contribute $100,000 to the relief effort along the U.S. Gulf Coast battered by Hurricane Katrina.

“The extent of the damage is overwhelming,” said Mitsubishi International Corporation President and CEO Motoatsu Sakurai, “We feel tremendous sorrow for all those affected by this tragedy.”

MIC has not yet chosen the organization that will receive the contribution but it will be directed to helping people rebuild their lives.

Mitsubishi International Corporation (MIC), a wholly owned subsidiary of Mitsubishi Corporation, is a multi-industry trading and investment company with 13 locations across the United States. Leveraging a worldwide network of international trading partners, the trading company conducts transactions in a comprehensive range of businesses, including chemicals, information technology, energy, metals, machinery and living essentials. MIC adds value through the ability to finance and invest in the development of companies and projects, as well as through expertise in providing the marketing, sourcing and logistics services needed for businesses to succeed. Headquartered in New York City, the company may be found on the web at www.mitsubishicorp-us.com.
